

Division “A” Playoff Information 2009

There are 4 Sections in the “A” Division.

The top eight teams (Including Section winners) will go to the NCAA bracket of the playoffs. The remaining 7 teams will go to the NIT bracket of the playoffs.

- The playoffs will be a single elimination format.
- Referee fees are paid for by the league.
- We will need a minimum of 4 gyms for the “A” playoffs
- The brackets shown are subject to change depending on location and gym availability. If multiple gyms are available, the board will use our best judgment on location and venue.
- Teams will be seeded according to overall record.
- If two teams are tied - First tiebreaker will be head to head, second tiebreaker will be the average of points allowed per game, and third tiebreaker will be differential between average points scored and average points allowed per game.

- If three or more teams are tied - First tiebreaker will be average of points allowed per game and second tiebreaker will be differential between average points scored and average points allowed per game.

Awards for NCAA and NIT brackets are as follows:

- 1ST place - Individual trophies
- 2nd place - Individual trophies

Division “B” Playoff Information 2009

All 10 teams will go to the playoffs.

- The playoffs will be a single elimination format.
- Referee fees are paid for by the league.
- We will need a minimum of 2 gyms for the “B” playoffs.
- The brackets shown are subject to change depending on location and gym availability. We have posted the dates for the playoffs. Please submit your gym availability as soon as possible. If multiple gyms are available, the board will use our best judgment on location and venue.
- Teams will be seeded according to record.
- If two teams are tied - First tiebreaker will be head to head, second tiebreaker will be average of points allowed per game and third tiebreaker will be differential between average points scored and average points allowed per game.
- If three or more teams are tied - First tiebreaker will be average of points allowed per game and second tiebreaker will be differential between average points scored and average points allowed per game.

Awards for “B” playoff bracket are as follows:

-1ST place - Individual trophies
-2nd place - Individual trophies

